

Student Mental Health Analysis

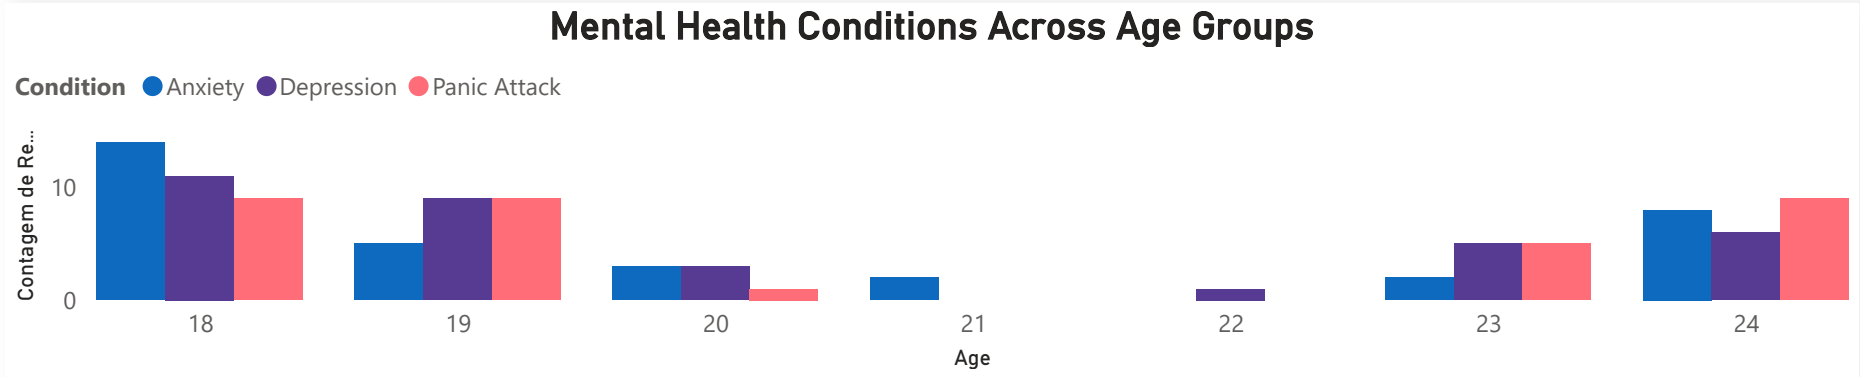

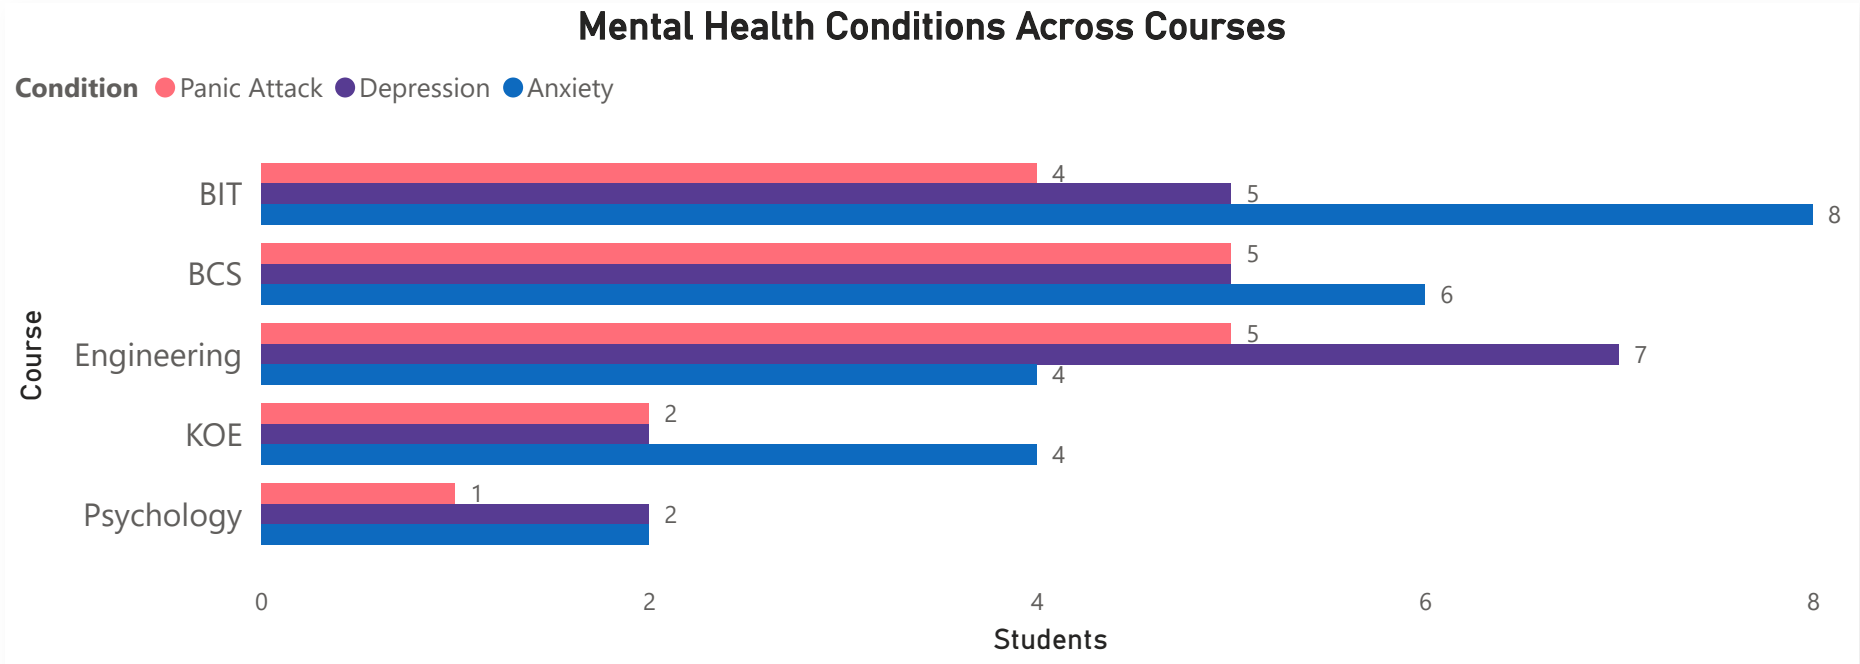

Analysis of anxiety, depression, and panic attacks among students

Mental Health Insights

Exploration of reported mental health conditions by course and age group.

- Anxiety
- Depression
- Panic Attack

The analysis revealed higher concentrations of reported anxiety and depression among younger students, especially those enrolled in technology-focused courses such as BIT, BCS, and Engineering.